

Dans: Cha Cha For You
Artist: The Mavericks
Song: I Hope You Want Me, Too

I'm contemplating, constantly debating
Yeah, I'm thinking I've been
Falling in love with you
I hope you want me, too
You're incredible, so irresistible
It's undeniable, I'm really
Fallin' in love with you
I hope you want me, too
I hope you want me, too

(You) caught my attention then you grabbed my heart
I felt your good vibrations right from the start
I can't seem to bring myself to say ...

I'm contemplating, constantly debating
Yeah, I'm thinking I've been
I've been falling in love with you
I hope you want me too
You're incredible, so irresistible
It's undeniable, I'm really
Fallin' in love with you
I hope you want me, too

No, I don't want to move too fast
I want to make sure that it's gonna last
But, I've been afraid to tell you

I'm contemplating, constantly debating ...
Yeah, I'm thinking I've been
I've been falling in love with you
I hope you want me too
You're incredible, so irresistible
It's undeniable, I'm really
Fallin' in love with you
I hope you want me, too
I hope you want me, too

No, I don't want to move too fast
I want to make sure that it's gonna last
But, I've been afraid to tell you

I'm contemplating, constantly debating ...
Yeah, I'm thinking I've been
I've been falling in love with you
I hope you want me too
You're incredible, so irresistible
It's undeniable, I'm really
Fallin' in love with you
I hope you want me, too
I hope you want me, too
I hope you want me, too
I hope you want me, too
