

Dans: Don't Forget
Artist: Phil Vassar
Song: Here to Forget

Joe's drinking Tequila Sunrise, and Katie's sipping Sex on the Beach.
Maria loves those blue margaritas. She likes them garnished with peach.
I dig these dirty martinis, and I like them shaken not stirred.
I come here every evening, just to get my mind off of her.

Woah woah woah
We're all in this together.
Woah woah woah.
One more round of regret.
I-yi-yi
Guess I'll have another, and another memory vacation.
We're all just here to forget.

Joe's wife had wandering eyes, she left him for some young guy at work.
Kate and Maria- same story, they fell in love with a jerk.
Me? I was prideful and foolish. I just pushed her away.
But I guess we all have our reasons, for being in here today.

Woah woah woah.
We're all in this together.
Woah woah woah.
One more round of regret.
I-yi-yi
Guess I'll have another, and another memory vacation.
We're all just here to forget.

I know that drowning our sorrows is not the solution.
It's just a temporary band-aid for the pain.
After carefully drinking, I've reached this conclusion.
We've all got problems to face, and it ain't happening today. (no not today)

Woah woah woah
We're all in this together.
Woah woah woah.
One more round of regret.
I-I-I
Guess I'll have another, and another, and another memory vacation.
We're all just here to forget.

Commiseration Vacation.
We're all just here to forget.
