

Dans: Midnight Waltz
Artist: Kenny Rogers
Song: Someone Must Like A Fool Tonight

Someone must feel like a fool tonight
Knowing they let you go
Someone is wishing they've done you right
Regretting they hurt you so.

Now that you're here in my loving arms
Forget all your yesterdays
Someone must feel like a fool tonight
For letting you slip away.

When I see the moon shining in your eyes
A feeling comes over me
The warmth of your touch makes me realize
Just how lucky can I be.

Surely he knows and he's sorry now
That he turned your love away
Someone must feel like a fool tonight
Knowing you're here to stay.
