Song: Yolanda

Every day I'm by the corral you come riding your buckskin mare,
Flashing your dark eyes while all the vaqueros try not to stare
I know your'e father would kill the first gringo foolish enough to dare
To ask for the hand of his daughter but I love you to much to care

Oh Yolanda I love you so, prettiest girl in all Mexico,
You'll find your way to my arms I know for your heart you can't ignore
I don't know where we go from here, I don't know what love holds in store,
I only know I don't want to live without you anymore.

I only came down here to break the new horses and lay low awhile,
But all that changed from the moment I first felt the warmth of your smile
Now I know I'll never be crossing the border unless you're by my side,
If I ever go back to Texas then I'm going back there in style.

Oh Yolanda I love you so, prettiest girl in all Mexico,
You'll find your way to my arms I know for your heart you can't ignore
I don't know where we go from here, I don't know what love holds in store,
I only know I don't want to live without you anymore

Out by the light of the moon you will saddle your backspin mare,
Make your way down to the river and soon I will meet you there,
We'll cross that old Rio Grande to our own secret rendezvous deep in the cool desert air
And we'll ride out of old Mexico and into the new life we'll share.

Oh Yolanda I love you so, prettiest girl in all Mexico,
You'll find your way to my arms I know for your heart you can't ignore
I don't know where we go from here, I don't know what love holds in store,
I only know I don't want to live without you anymore
I only know I don't want to live without you anymore
I only know I don't want to live without you anymore
